

Questions I'd Like the VA Attorneys to Answer
Created July 23, 2017 - Updated August 18, 2017 - Page 1 of 1

1. Combat vs Non-Combat benefits. ie Combat PTSD - Non Combat PTSD.
2. The dangers of reopening claim benefits to add to disability %.
3. Unknown benefits, ie. 100% disability during hospital stays.
4. The importance of being in the VA system.
5. The downside of using VA employed Service Officers for you claim.
6. The importance of evidence, including photos, orders, rewards, "Buddy Statements", VA form 21-4138 (what to include and what NOT to include).
7. Agent Orange claims, etc/Appeals process and starting new claim. The process has changed for the better, now veterans can access the VA using the Internet: not all troops are up-to-speed with the internet.
8. Watch out for scams: unscrupulous people are calling vets to steal their benefits and Identity Theft.
9. What/How does a spouse of a deceased veteran apply for Survivor Benefits? And what benefits are available?
10. Each State has different benefits for Veterans: Fish/Hunting License, Veterans Plates, Property Taxes advantages, Education, Employment opportunities. How do you find out what is available?
11. Discuss the "Ins and Outs" of the Compensation & Pension Exam and how to prepare and what to expect.
12. When a married veteran who has an approved VA claim passes away, what coverage will the veteran's spouse receive after the veterans death?